Harvard Theological Review
Contents of Volume 96

96:1 January

Does God Lie to His Prophets? The Story of Micaiah ben Imlah As a Test Case 1
R. W. L. Moberly

Witchcraft and the Sense-of-the-Impossible in Early Modern Spain: Some Reflections Based on the Literature of Superstition (ca. 1500–1800) 25
Fabián Alejandro Campagne

The Character and Sources of the Anti-Judaism in Bach's Cantata 46 63
Michael Marissen

The Philosophical Foundations of Soloveitchik's Critique of Interfaith Dialogue 101
Daniel Rynhold

Books Received 121

96:2 April

God From Eternity to Eternity: Luther's Trinitarian Understanding 127
Christine Helmer

Negotiating (with) the Natives: Ancestors and Identity in Genesis 147
Robert L. Cohn

A Reconsideration of Apocalyptic Visions 167
Michael E. Stone

Schleiermacher, Shaftesbury, and the German Enlightenment 181
Ernest Boyer, Jr.

Jesus Christ and the Transformation of English Society: The "Subversive Conservatism" of Frederick Denison Maurice 205
Paul Dafydd Jones

Notes and Observations

Caveats to a "Righted Order" of the Gospel of the Savior 229
Charles W. Hedrick

Who Are the Deities Concealed Behind the Rabbinic Expression "A Nursing Female Image"? 239
Emmanuel Friedheim

Books Received 251

96:3 July

Christus Nesciens? Was Christ Ignorant of the Day of Judgment? Arian and Orthodox Interpretation of Mark 13:32 in the Ancient Latin West 255
Kevin Madigan

The Dossier on Stephen, the First Martyr 279
François Bovon

The Forgotten Moralist: Friedrich Schleiermacher and the Science of Spirit 317
Brent W. Sockness

Schleiermacher and the Christologies Behind Chalcedon 349
Lori Pearson

Midrash in Emil Fackenheim's Holocaust Theology 369
Robert Eisen

Books Received 393

96:4 October

Did Election Imply the Mistreatment of Non-Israelites? 397
Joel S. Kaminsky

Exploring the Ethiopic Book of the Cock, An Apocryphal Passion Gospel from Late Antiquity 427
Pierluigi Piovanelli

Discipline and Diet: Feeding the Martyrs in Roman Carthage 455
Andrew McGowan

Fasting as a Penitential Rite: A Biblical Phenomenon? 477
David Lambert

Books Received 513

Index of Authors

Ernest Boyer, Jr.	Schleiermacher, Shaftesbury, and the German Enlightenment	181
Fabián Alejandro Campagne	Witchcraft and the Sense-of-the-Impossible in Early Modern Spain: Some Reflections Based on the Literature of Superstition (ca. 1500-1800)	25
Robert L. Cohn	Negotiating (with) the Natives: Ancestors and Identity in Genesis	147
Emmanuel Friedheim	Who Are the Deities Concealed Behind the Rabbinic Expression "A Nursing Female Image"?	239
Charles W. Hedrick	Caveats to a "Righted Order" of the Gospel of the Savior	229
Christine Helmer	God From Eternity to Eternity: Luther's Trinitarian Understanding	127
Paul Dafydd Jones	Jesus Christ and the Transformation of English Society: The "Subversive Conservatism" of Frederick Denison Maurice	205
Joel S. Kaminsky	Did Election Imply the Mistreatment of Non-Israelites?	397
David Lambert	Fasting as a Penitential Rite: A Biblical Phenomenon?	477
Michael Marissen	The Character and Sources of the Anti-Judaism in Bach's Cantata 46	63

Andrew McGowan	Discipline and Diet: Feeding the Martyrs in Roman Carthage	455
R. W. L. Moberly	Does God Lie to His Prophets? The Story of Micaiah ben Imlah As a Test Case	1
Pierluigi Piovanelli	Exploring the Ethiopic Book of the Cock, An Apocryphal Passion Gospel from Late Antiquity	427
Daniel Rynhold	The Philosophical Foundations of Soloveitchik's Critique of Interfaith Dialogue	101
Michael E. Stone	A Reconsideration of Apocalyptic Visions	167